Term 2 Week 6

29 April 2022

Dear Parents,
Greetings!

With the relaxation of Safe Management Measures, the school has resumed mass assembly in the hall. Every Friday morning, the Primary One and Two students will gather in the hall for morning assembly. Before the commencement of flag raising ceremony, students engage in silent reading when they are seated in the hall. Students are encouraged to read Mother Tongue books every Friday morning.

Primary One and Two students have started their Drama enrichment programme on 12 April 2022. The programme helps to develop thinking skills and encourage social interaction among the students through the use of Drama principles and experiences.

Professional instructors from ACT 3 Drama Academy are engaged to inject fun and laughter into the Drama lessons. Students learnt invaluable skills such as self-expression, confidence building as well as spontaneity.
