Term 2 Week 2

27 March 2023

Dear Parents,

Welcome to the second week of Term 2. Today, we would like to share a programme called Termly Affirmation. At the end of each term, Concord teachers take the time to affirm students who are good role models to their peers. A certificate of commendation will be presented to these students. In this newsletter, we will feature some of our P3 and P4 Concordians who have demonstrated outstanding leadership qualities and uphold the school's values.

TERMLY AFFIRMATION 2023 TERM 1 OUTSTANDING STUDENT LEADER

JAYDEN YONG JUN XUAN &
NUR NISHA NABILA BINTE MOHAMMAD RASHIDIN 3C

Jayden and Nisha are nominated by Mdm Norhariaty, 3C form teacher, for being outstanding class monitors. Jayden has great initiative and can be relied on to exercise sound judgment. He is exemplary in his conduct and is able to influence others positively by motivating them. Nisha is respectful towards her teachers and peers. Her calm demeanour in dealing with challenges and her caring personality makes her a person that her peers can often turn to when they need help. Proud of you, Jayden and Nisha!

KIM DOJUN 4F

Mdm Mona Lee, 4F form teacher, has nominated Dojun for displaying the core values of care and responsibility. Dojun is a well-behaved and caring student. He is also a dependable and trustworthy buddy to his classmate with special needs. He extends his help sincerely, such as accompanying his classmate to the toilet and guiding him to be more attentive and participate in class. What is admirable is that Dojun has been carrying out this responsibility since the first day of school this year. Good job, Dojun!

Congratulations to all students who have received their termly affirmation certificates in Term 1. The school is proud of them and they have certainly shown what is like to be true Concordians. We certainly hope to continue affirming many more students in the coming terms!

In the words of our Principal, Mr Tan Siew Tiong, "We believe firmly in character education and will constantly strive to do our best to inculcate in our Concordians a set of sound and enduring values that becomes their moral compass in their quest for knowledge and skills and to be future-ready. We want to nurture our Concordians to be resilient, adaptable, and courageous to navigate new frontiers and changing circumstances."

Till the next newsletter, Parents! Wishing you a wonderful week ahead!
